INSPECTORS REPORT

- In the month of September 2018, there were 129 total inspections. Of the 129 inspections, 53 were housing inspections and 76 were other inspections.
- There were no electrical citations issued.
- The City Council approved the complete removal of reciprocity from the Electrical Ordinance.
- Low Voltage Electric failed an electrical inspection. They made corrections and was later approved.

OLD BUSINESS

- James J Lynch, Joseph T Barnard, and Robert D Bickle have passed the Prometric Test and are eligible for a Belleville Electrical license.
- Timothy B Maloney failed the Prometrics test and must provide proof of further education prior to retesting.

NEW BUSINESS

- A review of the proposed electrical ordinance revisions in relation to the existing ordinance was postponed until the November Commission meeting. Larry to review and mark up the new ordinance as it compared to the old ordinance, then distribute to the commission members.
- A letter was sent to B&B Electric, Steven Trutter, for allowing an unlicensed contractor, CH Electric to use his license. CH was installing solar panels at 208 Longview Drive. Steve did not show up at the commission meeting. CH Electric was asked to make things safe and exit the site.

- A discussion was held on the potential impact of the new electrical codes on older buildings in the city of Belleville.
- A discussion was held concerning the city of Fairview Heights starting a licensing program and the potential of reciprocating with the City of Belleville. This issue was tabled upon further review of their inspection program.

The next meeting will be held on November 26, 2018 at 6:00 p.m.
