THE McCOY DIRECTORY CO.
COMPILERS AND PUBLISHERS
KEOKUK, IOWA
HAVING resumed the publication of the Belleville City Directory after a lapse of four years, we have no hesitation in presenting this volume to the public. Our three former issues were conceded to be the best and most accurate directories ever made for Belleville, and this volume will certainly equal if not surpass any of its predecessors. We have made a canvass of the new Rock Road Addition, which has added a considerable number of residents to the city. Belleville, since our last issue, has increased in every way—in population, buildings, business, and in everything that goes to make a prosperous and satisfied people, and its citizens are to be congratulated on having in their midst so many able and public-spirited men who have made the "New Belleville" a possibility.

On the preliminary canvass made at the beginning of the year it was expected to have a list of the residents of the Rural Routes running out of Belleville, but a ruling of the Post Office Department forbids the postmasters giving such information to anyone, and as it was impossible for us to obtain the names, we were compelled to give up the idea.

With the new additions and the influx of new residents Belleville's population is now close to 25,000.

We thank all who have in any manner aided in the publication of this work and promise that while we continue publishing the Directory of Belleville it will rank with the best works of a similar character.
